ELECTION RETURNS ARE SLOW
BUT RESULT IS NOT IN DOUBT

Only Few Maricopa County Precincts Ready With Complete Count — Work Will Probably Continue Until Friday Morning

DRY AMENDMENT
CONTINUES TO LEAD

The Majority in Maricopa County May Exceed Even Estimates of Adherents—County Officers Are All Re-elected

The situation that existed yesterday all over the state outside of Maricopa county existed also in Maricopa county. The progress of the count of the ballots that were cast on Tuesday was exceedingly slow, and out of the sixty-four voting precincts within the county not twenty had made complete returns, and by reason of the size of the ballot the number of propositions at the bottom of the ballot, figures naturally were very slow in their completion.

So far as the count has gone the approximations announced exclusively in The Arizona Republican of Tuesday seem to be borne out in almost every particular. It will be impossible to announce a final and complete count of the votes cast in this county earlier than tomorrow. In some of the precincts the vote is so heavy that sunrise Friday will likely see the election boards still at work.

The interest in the election in spite of the fact that the vote is now all cast, continues unabated, and here are constant visitors to the downtown voting precincts and to the offices of the newspapers by candidates, supporters and citizens, all interested in knowing what the final outcome will be as to the number of votes cast and the majority. Numbers of the candidates have friends in each of the booths, who have interested themselves sufficiently to check the vote and pass it on, and by this means a great deal of comfort has been handed out to the apparently successful contestants for office.

A great deal of interest also was evinced yesterday, although the final outcome is about understood, on the proposition as to whether or not Phoenix in the city precincts actually cast a majority for the vote. Some have to have the figures on this, while others are making merely estimates, but there is yet much conjecture as to just the size of the majority one way or the other. At a late hour last night it still looked as though Phoenix would be dry by a small majority.

Although the majority of Sheriff Adams cannot yet be told, it is reasonably sure that he has been re-elected the chief peace officer of the county. The board of supervisors will be the same as that of last year, except that C. Warren Peterson takes the place formerly held by Lin M. Orme. James Miller, Jr., will be clerk of the superior court, Raughlin C. Stanford will be superior judge, J. A. Ringing superintendent of schools, George A. MacDonald, treasurer, J. T. Bone, tax assessor, John A. Vaughn, recorder, the legislative representation from Maricopa county will be composed of O. S. Stapley and Sam F. Webb, senators; Guy D. Acuff, J. C. Goodwin, A. G. Austin, J. C. McLean, T. T. Powers and Loren P. Vaughn, representatives.

The two Phoenix justice precincts are incomplete but it is generally conceded that Judge Parker and J. I. Bates are elected justice and constable respectively for East Phoenix, and Roy Morrell is elected constable for the West Phoenix precinct, but the result on the justice is not yet assured. Judge Johnston, the present justice, seems to be having a hard race at the hands of Harry J. Bennett, the democratic nominee.

F. Augustus Heinz Dies
At His Saratoga Home

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
SARATOGA, N. Y., Nov. 4.—F. Augustus Heinz, owner of immense western copper interests, died here tonight suddenly.

Heinz has made his home in Saratoga for the last six months, and his son, F. Augustus Heinz, Jr., 2 years old, is the only relative he had here. Mrs. Heinz died about a year ago.

A sister of Heinz, Mrs. William K. Fleimann, and two brothers, Arthur P. and Otto Heinz, of New York, are on their way here. No funeral arrangements will be made until they arrive.

Some Interesting Figures

Complete returns in twenty-two precincts out of sixty-four in Maricopa county show the following:

STATE VOTE
FILTERS IN VERY SLOWLY

Additions, Disclosed by the Slow Count, Preserve Ratio — Democratic Victory and Adoption of Dry Amendment

Returns from the state yesterday and last night added comparatively little to what was known in the morning. In the larger precincts the count will not be finished before this afternoon. Such additional information as has been received has not changed the indications of the result at midnight of Tuesday—the election of the whole democratic ticket and the adoption of the dry amendment. Throughout yesterday there were rumors of changes which would show the election of Cameron and the rejection of the dry amendment, but they were based on unreliable figures. The republican management conceded the election of Hunt and the Self Government League conceded the adoption of the dry amendment by 1000.

Cochise. Nov. 4.—Twenty-one precincts in Cochise county out of 18 give Hunt 320, Cameron 740; wetts have a small majority. It is believed that Douglas, Bisbee and Lowell, when counted, will give the wets a large enough vote to carry the county by about 750.

Small precincts, expected to go dry, are many of them turning in wet majorities. The count is very slow and will probably be finished late tomorrow.

Greenlee. Nov. 4.—Four precincts in Greenlee county, partial, not included.

ing the town of Morenci: Senator, Smith 430, Hubbell 161, congress, Hayden 513, Eds 146; governor, Hunt 389, Cameron 368; secretary, Osborne 424, Cole 264; attorney general, Jones 436, Morrison 267; auditor, Callaghan 537; treasurer, Sims 556; Ryning 157; supreme court, Cunningham 475, Franklin 400, Ross 492, Armstrong 164, Croce 162; prohibition, for 342, against 228.

Gila County. Nov. 4.—The count is dragging and many large precincts are not over half counted. The wets are gaining slightly as the early vote is being reached and they claim they will win the county by a substantial majority. It's guesswork as neither wets nor drys have any way of telling anything until the count is nearly finished, which may not be until tomorrow night.

Hunt is leading Cameron by 290 majority. In seven complete precincts out of 24, the vote is Hunt 812, Cameron 522. The same precincts give the drys 65 majority. The northern part of the county is giving Hunt a good vote according to telephone messages, but the figures are not yet received. Friends of Hunt say he will carry the county by from 800 to 1000.

Cocino. Nov. 4.—The first two hundred votes in Flagstaff: Armstrong 50, Bennett 44, Croce 17, Cunningham 65, Franklin 26, Hayes 28, Morrison 31, Ross 76, Campbell 59, Clymer 12, Miller 47, Parker 22, Perry 8, Simanton 7, Suits 3; Zander 51; Hunt 81, Young 3, Cameron 92; amendments, dry, yes 47, no 40.

The first one hundred votes in Williams: Armstrong 27, Bennett 26, Croce 5, Cunningham 41, Franklin 20, Hayes 17, Morrison 16, Ross 47, Campbell 44, Clymer 8, Miller 24, Parker 11, Perry 4, Simanton 2, Suits 1, Zander 3; Hunt 47, Young 11, Cameron 20; dry amendment, yes 47, no 40.

DOUGLAS. Nov. 4.—Cochise will go wet by about 600. The anti-blacklist and 80 percent laws will carry, three to one.

Yuma. Nov. 4.—Yuma City: For senator, Smith 268, Nelson 17, Hubbell 59, three precincts. For congress, Hayden 237, Eds 27; three precincts. For governor, Hunt 238.

Hoof And Mouth
Disease Found
In Six States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The worst outbreak of foot and mouth disease ever known, is the United States department of agriculture's estimate of the livestock epidemic which has forced a federal quarantine over six states, and threatens the temporary reduction of the nation's food supply.

An emergency appropriation by congress may be necessary to finance a campaign to suppress the disease. Officials say it will be a week before they can estimate the effect on the food supply. The department of agriculture says: "This outbreak, the first since 1908, is regarded as the most serious the United States has ever known."

Stock Yards Closed.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The Chicago Union stock yards, the largest cattle market in the world, which has been in continual business since 1865, was ordered closed tonight for several days because of the prevalence of hoof and mouth disease among cattle.

FOUR STATES
VOTE TO OUST
THE SALOONS

Arizona, Colorado, Oregon and Washington, Western Commonwealths, Carry State-wide Prohibition Amendments

WOMAN SUFFRAGE
IN TWO STATES

Montana and Nevada Grant Vote to Women—Illinois Remains Republican, and Democratic Delegation is Halved

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Two of the six states that voted on the question of ousting the saloons have decided to retain bar-rooms, while the other four on the latest returns have apparently expatriated the selling of alcoholic drinks. Ohio and California voted in favor of retaining saloons, while Colorado, Oregon, Arizona and Washington closed theirs. Washington, on the first returns, showed a wet majority, but later returns gave the drys a slight lead, which has tended to increase.

Incomplete, unofficial returns from Colorado and Oregon show slight leads in favor of ousting the saloons. Unofficial returns from Arizona show the saloons are voted out, the women aiding materially in reaching this result, as well as in voting to retain the death penalty. Missouri defeated the county unit system for local option, which precluded a rural vote on saloons in option elections.

Women Gain Two States

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Women suffrage leaders rejoiced tonight when belated returns indicated votes for women had apparently been granted in two out of seven states voting on the question, with the third in doubt. The first returns indicated defeat in all seven. Montana and Nevada, according to the latest returns, have granted votes to women, while Nebraska has shown such a small vote against the proposal the women have claimed the state.

Missouri, Ohio, North and South Dakota refused to grant suffrage. The vote against granting franchises to women in the last four states is the population concerned. The effect of women's vote on prohibition indicated the women do not unanimously oppose the saloons. Women failed in two Pacific coast states to turn out the saloons, although the exact status of the female vote on the subject in California and Washington is not adjudicated yet.

Illinois Republican.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—With remote down-state precincts reporting slowly, Sherman, republican, candidate for the United States senate, tonight cut down the 56,000 plurality rolled up for Sullivan by Chicago. Sullivan headquarters asserted the extreme southern counties of the state would turn the tide Sullivan's favor, as the vote in Montana two years ago, when early indications were that Roosevelt had carried the state.

The woman vote seemed to maintain the same proportion to the total cast in each of the three parties. It is expected that the advantage which the progressives hoped to show through the votes of the women did not appear in the returns for municipal judges, in which women halved with the men.

Most of the state offices are conceded to the republicans. Andrew J. Russell, republican, was elected state treasurer; Francis G. Blair, republican, superintendent of public instruction, and Charles W. Vail, republican, clerk of the supreme court. In the congressional fights the republicans made decided gains, returning Cannon, former speaker of the house, McKinley, and probably Bodenburg. If the final count proves emboldened, the republicans will have advanced from four to twenty members in the lower house, while the democrats will have ten instead of twenty in the last house. Robins, progressive candidate for United States senator, ran far behind the record of Roosevelt in 1912. McGovern, democratic national committee man, was the one progressive elected to the state legislature from Chicago. The democrats will have control of the next state senate, while the house will be deadlocked.

Ohio Is Republican.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—That Ohio will have a republican senator to succeed Burton, a republican governor to succeed Cox, and a republican majority in the state congressional delegation is assured. Republican will carry twelve out of the twenty-two congressional districts and elect the entire state ticket. Prohibition and woman suffrage were defeated.

Roosevelt Points To Lessons For New York

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—When Theodore Roosevelt was asked for an expression of his opinion on the outcome of the election in New York state, he said:

"In the Episcopal church the lessons taken from the Bible are appointed for every day of the year. The lesson for November 7 includes the second Epistle of Paul to Timothy, chapter 13, 2-4, which reads as follows:

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth and shall be turned into fables."

"I have nothing to add to this at the present. After all the returns are in, I may have something more to say."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The latest returns indicated the democratic majority in the house of representatives in the sixty-fourth congress will be reduced to twenty-three. It is probable the democratic majority in the senate will be 14.

Democrats have elected 226 members, republicans 192, progressives 10, and socialists 1. Of the six missing districts, it is estimated tonight the republicans and democrats might elect three each. The heaviest republican gains in an almost overwhelming democratic majority were in Illinois, 12 in New York, 10 in Pennsylvania and 5 in Ohio.

The progressive representation in the house was cut from 19 to 9 or 10. This resulted in a general collapse of the progressive movement throughout the country, except in California.

Contents which are so close they could not be determined at a late hour are claimed by the democrats in two districts of Colorado, one in New Jersey, and by republicans in two districts of Kansas and one of North Carolina.

Utah Vote in Doubt.
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 4.—The result of Utah's senatorial election remains in doubt, with claims of success by a majority of a hundred made for both Smoot and Moyle. Complete returns received are almost equally divided, and incomplete returns make it difficult to determine who won.

Cummins and Clarke.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 4.—The re-election by Iowa republicans of United States Senator Cummins and Governor Clarke is certain, and interest tonight centers in the size of their pluralities. It is estimated that Cummins is ahead 25,000 to 26,000, and Clarke 10,000 to 20,000.

Close in Montana.
HELENA, Nov. 4.—Returns from scattered precincts in Montana show the vote on the woman suffrage amendment is so close that the official count may be necessary.

Illinois Democratic.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—From two-thirds of the vote tabulated, Senator Shively, democrat, has 35,000 plurality over Hugh Miller, republican candidate, and it is believed Shively's lead will be maintained through the state. His return to the senate seems certain. The state democratic ticket seems assured of election by a plurality of 20,000.

New Mexico Republican.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns from nearly every county indicated Hernandez, republican, will have a plurality over Ferguson, democrat, in the race for congress of approximately 2,000.

The collapse of the progressive party was a feature of the election. It is possible that Metcalf, socialist, will run ahead of Wilson, progressive, for congress.

About Even Break.
PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 4.—After receiving the returns from the northern counties of the state tonight, Congressman Burke, republican, conceded the election of Johnson, democrat, to the United States senate, and wired congratulations.

Gandy, democrat, in the third congressional district, is elected by a substantial majority. In the other two congressional districts, republican candidates are elected.

Missouri Democratic.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—Thirty democrats, two republicans and one district claimed by both parties; such is the status of Missouri's congressional delegation. (Continued on Page Seven)

MEXICO HAS TWO PRESIDENTS NO
REAL CAPITAL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
EL PASO, Nov. 4.—Mexico, with two provisional presidents, has two provisional capitals today, neither of them Mexico City. Carranza, who for several days has been at Puebla, has ordered his cabinet ministers to the archives of the government to proceed there. Puebla is located between the national capital and Vera Cruz, where American forces remain. The other capital is Aguas Calientes, the scene of the recent conference of the revolutionary chiefs who attempted to adjust the long-standing difficulties between Carranza and Villa. Gutierrez, elected by the convention, officiated there.

Carranza, from the general consulate here, announced that several important leaders have joined the Carranza side, among them Obregon, who has acted as a neutral in the Carranza-Villa difficulty; Blanco, a cavalry commander in Obregon's division, and formerly chief of the eastern zone, and Villarreal, who has been president of the Aguas Calientes convention. The acquisition of the troops of these leaders would place Carranza in a much stronger position than the insurgent commander of the north. Villa, however, has a much better organized army and superior equipment.

Carranza Willing to Stick.
SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 4.—If all of the chief constitutional army abandons me, I will abandon my native land, but, on the other hand, if any part of them sustain and uphold me, we will fight until death.

These were the defiant words with which Carranza is credited in a statement given out at the Mexican consulate after the receipt of a telegram from Puebla.

The statement said that Carranza had issued the following relative to the action of the delegates at Aguas Calientes:

"These valiant generals have made effective a resignation that had never been presented or forwarded by me and which I never presented, and they have even gone so far as to appoint a president. And by this last act they have fallen into the net prepared for them by some Maaderista congressmen, the same ones who distinguished themselves as being responsible to a great extent, in the causes which led to the overthrow of the democratic government apostle, Madero. These very same men are now causing more trouble for the nation through their intrigues and ambitions."

Maricopa Slim Shot and Killed By Circus Man

(Special to The Republican)
MARICOPA, Nov. 3 (Thursday), 2:30 a. m.—Deputy Sheriff Powers, better known as "Maricopa Slim," was shot and killed here tonight by an employee of the A. G. Barnes circus, en route through here from Phoenix. Slim got his man, and he is dying in the depot at this place. The affray came up as a result of an altercation on the train, and Powers interfered with fatal results to himself.

He was shot through the body and did not live three minutes. His assailant was shot through the back. The name of the dying man is not known. The tragedy occurred 150 yards west of the Maricopa depot on the siding where the train was resting.

A number of attaches of the circus who witnessed the affray are being held pending a coroner's investigation, which will be held this morning.

Maricopa Slim was one of the best known and most fearless deputy sheriffs and deputy officers who ever operated in this country. He was placed himself in positions of peril that caused his friends to wonder that he lived so long to get away with it.

TURKEY BREAKS WITH FOUR OF WORLD POWERS

Quits Peaceful Relations With Great Britain, Russia, France and Serbia and Three Representatives Receive Their Passports

SOME DIPLOMATS
ALREADY GONE

Although No Statement is Given, Understood Turkey's Apology for Actions of Fleet Proves Unacceptable to Triple Entente

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
LONDON, Nov. 4.—Turkey has now definitely broken off diplomatic relations with Great Britain, France, Russia and Serbia. Her diplomatic representatives in the capital of three countries, acting on order of the Porte, have demanded and received their passports. Some of them have already left their posts, while others will depart tomorrow. Although no statement to this effect was given out, it is understood that Turkey's apology for the actions of her fleet in the bombardment of Russian Black Sea ports and Russian ships, proved unacceptable to the powers of the triple entente, in that Turkey is not prepared to accede to the demand that German officers in her service be dismissed and the ships purchased from Germany or dismantled.

The powers which the Ottoman government has thus defied, already are taking war-like action against Turkey. The British have destroyed Fort Akabiah in Arabia, the Russians have invaded Asia Minor and the Anglo-French fleet is bombarding the forts of the Dardanelles.

The American embassy is preparing to take over the diplomatic duties of the Turkish embassy, and the first secretary of the American embassy, Edwin B. Laughlin has discussed the details of the transfer with Ambassador Tewfik Pasha.

Military men here say the allies have just as good means for bringing reinforcements to their lines as the Germans, and express confidence that a new attack will prove as fruitless as the previous ones.

The Indian troops and the pick of the English territorial forces have distinguished themselves in fighting and have come in for compliments from General French.

For the trend of events on the East Prussian frontier, reliance has to be placed entirely in the Russian report, as the German headquarters say nothing about it. The Russians, according to a Petrograd report, successfully met the German offensive movement from East Prussia and the Germans are now retreating across their own frontier leaving large quantities of arms and ammunition behind them.

In Poland still, according to the Russians, the Germans continue to fall back, while farther to the south the Russians at last have the Austro-German forces, forming their right wing, on the move and occupy the important towns of Kielce and Sandomir, and taken 200 officers, 15,000 men and several dozen of guns and machine guns.

Now that Turkey has aligned herself among the nations at war, the speculation is what the other Balkan powers will do. Greece is said to be preparing to take sides with the allies, while Bulgaria has given assurance of her neutrality. Bulgaria, however, is mobilizing for, as a Bulgarian diplomat said, "with Turkey in the area of war, Bulgaria must be prepared for an eventualities."

Next to the Turkey situation, the appearance of German warships off the coast of England, is causing the most discussion in this country. There is a disposition among naval men to believe that no serious raid is intended, but that the Germans have hoped to induce the British warships to follow them and by laying mines as they retreated, to catch some bigger ships as did submarine D-5.

The fact that the Germans did lay mines seems to indicate to the naval experts the ships engaged in this work were old ones. These experts argue that Germany would not take such risks with new vessels. As if to prove this contention, experts say the force on the British cruiser Naloxoy, which resulted in slight damage to that vessel, showed the Germans were not armed with modern guns.

Official reports of fighting on land as issued today recorded advances at various points and repulses of attacks at others. There is no great change in the situation, according to these reports. It is definitely announced the Germans have given up their positions along the Yser, having been driven out there by the flooded country and the gas fire of the allied troops. The warships and the Germans, however, kept up an attack on the allied lines around Ypres, where the British are fighting. Although at this point they have not
